Thanks

To my FFHB Church Family, Awesome! That's the best way I know to describe this church family.
I want to express my heartfelt thanks to you for your outpouring of love expressed by your giving on Compassion Sunday.

You always respond in a great way
to any "special project" but this love offering for the tornado victims was exceptional!

You can be assured every dollar was passed on with much prayer and purpose. From the responses that we have received, I believe we will never know this side of heaven, how far reaching our giving will be.

Thanks to ALL who took food to a neighbor, offered a hot bath, washed clothes, provided special needs for neighbors/friends. Some provided food for the staging areas.
Some shared their home to one who lost his.

There were many, many acts of love shown by our church family to those in crisis!

We may not have been on the "6 o'clock news" but we were busy doing what-ever it took for those in need.

Thanks so much for helping your WMU to sponsor this project! You are Awesome! To God be the glory.

Bro. Ed's Epistle "But when you pray, go into your private room, shut the door, and pray to your Father." Matt. 6:6 – Jesus taught his disciples to pray out of an intimate relationship with God. He cautioned against the custom of the day to make a big public show of prayer. It is not how we are publicly perceived that counts. Rather, it is how our relationship with the Father is that truly matters. As we continue our fifty days of prayer for personal and church revival, I encourage you to concentrate on your relationship with the Lord. He truly loves us and wants to spend time with us. Out of the growing intimacy, we will experience true revival.

I am so grateful for the opportunity to serve with you in a great mission field. God has blessed our church through each member. Keep on loving God and each other, and keep finding ways to share the good news of Jesus with our lost friends and neighbors. I am excited about our next time of worship together.

LLOYD'S LINES-The Lord is blessing this fellowship of believers under the leadership of Bro. Ed and Ms. Evelyn. Most churches have summer slumps but not so here. Thanks folks for your dedication. It is the most loving church that I have ever been a part of and it is because of you.

REVIVAL 28-31 - I saw Bro. Graham last week and he is looking forward to being with us. Dale and I attended a Music Conference in Atlanta, Georgia and he too is excited about being with us. We want to have a Revival Choir for each service so we invite you to be a part of this choir. Pray every day for the preaching and the music.

And just remember . . . GOD LOVES YOU AND SO DO I. sing-CERELY, Bro. Lloyd

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT - The great D. L.

Moody on the subject of stewardship wrote . . .

Life is simply a stewardship and not an ownership, a trust and not a gift. With a gift you may do as you please, but with a trust, you must give an account. Whether it is my talents, my time, my treasure or the temple of my body, in all of these I am only a steward. When I give my stewardship report to God, what kind of grade will I get on a scale of 1 - 10? Rom. 14:11-12. What about yours? Don't forget Revival August 28th - 31st! I love you, Harry

THANK YOU

Dear FHBC Words can never express how much you all mean to us and have meant to us through the years. Lib Roberts loved her friends there so much. The precious memories she had of all of you was a priceless gift. The love and faithfulness you have shown is beyond measure. In these last years she enjoyed sharing with us the many visits and cards she received from the members of FHBC. They always brightened her days and brought that twinkle to her eye as she shared them with us. There are so many to thank for your kindness and hospitality during the celebration of her promotion – those that prayed, took phone calls, visited, sent flowers, took part in the service, cooked, cleaned, worked sound and gave us more support than we could have imagined. You are such a special group of people. We love you and thank you from the bottom of our hearts. We pray that God will continue to richly bless each of you and your wonderful ministry.

Many times over the last couple of years she received painful news that yet another lifelong friend had passed from this world. She missed talking with them on the phone and just knowing that they were there to talk to if she needed them. In the week before she received her promotion, she called out the names of Alvorene Brown and Audrey Mitchell. She just called out and looked upward as though she was actually seeing them. One thing for sure-they were there waiting for her as she entered into that glorious, eternal home. Someone said last week that there were more on the other side now than there are here. For Lib Roberts, that was certainly true, but now she is on the other side and has been reunited with her family and friends-standing tall and walking whole again. Such a beautiful picture.

Thank you all for being a part of her life and for being such a tremendous part in our lives. It doesn't matter whether we were members of Fairfield Highlands or not, we all have memories and stories to share of camps, revivals, musicals, friends and so much more. The legacy of FHBC remains and will be passed on for many more generations.

Many Blessings, The Family of Elizabeth Roberts
