BRO. ED'S EPISTLE "But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now you have revived your concern for me." Philippians 4:10

I recently preached on the "Revival of Concern", and challenged our people to examine our hearts and see if we really care for one another and for the lost. We also have experienced a great community revival with outstanding preachers and musicians leading us to a renewed commitment to Jesus. Just as Paul commended the Philippian congregation for reviving their concern, I am thankful for the level of concern in our fellowship. God has touched us with His care, and we have responded by showing concern for each other and for a world searching for someone who cares. You express that concern through prayer, generous giving, and personal ministry that touches people from your heart and points others to Jesus. I urge you to not grow weary in showing concern for all. We will reap an abundant harvest of God's grace and power.

The Easter season is upon us. May we use the season to remind others of Jesus' death and resurrection. It is a joy to serve with you in a great mission field.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT- Do you really believe in prayer? As a child of the King, do you really believe God answers every prayer prayed in Jesus name? Do you really believe God's Word is infallible? If your answers were yes, April 1st you will have an opportunity to prove it. On that day, we will climax our one + ? day. The "one" is you, the "question mark" represents the "friend or friends" that God is going to reveal to you and hold you accountable for after you pray. We can trust Him and His word - - can He trust us to claim it?

Preferably, ask Him for the name of an unsaved family member, neighbor, co-worker or friend. Remembering, you may be the last opportunity standing between them and Heaven or Hell.

Maybe you can look back through an old church directory and recognize someone who "used to be" but for some reason has dropped out. Maybe even on your S.S. Roll. This is a golden opportunity to love them back. Just maybe it may be a person you don't even know yet, but God does. God will either lead you to them or them to you.

This is not another "numbers" thing - -this is not a "high attendance" thing. This is really "love your church" and "friend day." It is our prayer that someone would be saved, join a S.S. class and become a new church member. March 4th, we will begin our 29 Days of Prayer claiming John 14:13-14. Remember the story about the little train - -I think I can, I think I can, I think I can - - I DID IT! Let this be our Motto! More info later.

I love you, Harry

LLOYD'S LINES Next Sunday, March 4th, we will be observing "Baptist Men's Day" here. This is sponsored by the Brotherhood of FHBC. We will have a guest speaker for morning service. He is Mr. Ed Lawley, retired as a Captian in Sherrifs Department of Jefferson County. The "Men's Choir" will fill the choir loft and present the special music for the service.

LOOKING AHEAD - the month of April will be filled with special days. So circle you calendar and remember

APRIL 1st - FRIENDS DAY at Fairfield Highlands. The choir will be presenting the easter musical "Oh What A Savior." There will be other things so watch your bulletin and listen to announcements.

APRIL 8th - EASTER SUNDAY. There will be special music and then the Easter Message by Bro. Ed.

APRIL 29th - "Fifth Sunday Special". We will once again have a our very special guest, Bro. Buck and Randy Harwell. You remember the last time we had them it was a great day. We will have our Family Covered Dish luncheon after the service. It will be special music by the choir and specials by those who were here during Randy's Ministry. So help us spread the word about this special day.

In the meantime, be faithful to the other services here . . . and just remember . . . God loves you and so do I. SING-cerely, Bro. Lloyd
