Bro. Ed’s Epistle “My times are in Your hands..” Psalm 31:15

The Psalmist recognized that his life was measured in time which was in God's hands. Time is very important to us. Even children constantly ask when we are taking a trip, "Are we there yet?" As a church family we need to be aware that God is sending revival to us. We have been praying and making other preparations for revival. Now the time is here. Let me urge you to do what God puts in your heart to do during these final days before revival comes. Are there people you need to invite to revival services? Is there ministry to someone that needs to be done? Are you praying and expecting God to touch us with revival? Open your heart and your hands for revival.. The time is now!

Our love and prayers go out to Gena and Greg Edmonds, family and friends in the death of their son, Gregory Scott Edmonds, Jr.

LLOYD’S LINES – The spotlight today in on the FHBC Choir and rightfully so. It has been my privilege to have larger choirs but never as TALENTED as this choir. We have so many combinations with soloists, duets, mens quartets, mixed quartets, ensembles, trios, etc. And we have the best accompanists found anywhere in Eddie Hill and Delores Jenkins. They are so talented and so faithful. They bless us every Sunday with the Pre Service Music. Then how about our instrumental ensemble of Cissy Walton, Robby Rothe and Darryl Jones. They add so much to the Music Program. This Choir works so hard on Wednesday Night Choir practices to bring to you the beautiful Choir Specials for the services. Then I am so grateful to those who make up the Sunday Night Praise Choir. They add so much to the Sunday Evening Service. And right now the Choir is working on Christmas Music. This year they will present a musical entitled “DOWN FROM HIS GLORY.” This is the most beautiful and inspirational Christmas musical that I have ever been a part of in all the years that I have been in the Music Ministry. And I praise the Lord and You for allowing me to be on the staff of FHBC, the most loving church found anywhere. I love each one of you and may God continue to bless Fairfield Highlands Baptist Church.

Special thanks to all of you who came to our Fifth Sunday Services of last Sunday. Truly we were blessed. Remember to pray for your Church, your Staff and for each other and a always just remember . . . “GOD LOVES YOU AND SO DO I.” Bro. Lloyd (Proverbs 3:5 and 6)

HARRY’S HEARTBEAT – The menu plainly states, “NO SALT ADDED.” Which translates to mean, the word “NO” becomes just a little bit. Good or not, the salt shaker is one of the favorite items on my table. Salt completely changes the situation. The more I wished I could have just a little sprinkle here and there, I was reminded that that was what Jesus meant when He said every Christian should be a salt in general. I would now like to approach it in a specific light. An act of love. Salt does not take away, salt gives something.

Love (salt) is about giving and sharing to meet the needs all around us whether practical or inspirational. Someone has said, “Love for God is the root; love for others is the fruit.”

I praise God that He has placed to use my shaker as never before to sprinkle a little Jesus everyday. For the most part, He has given me a captive audience. When people are hurting they are grasping for anything that gives them hope. However, as long as I keep that hope in my shaker, it is worthless. This truth is, all of life is tasteless without love. Love is the energy of life. It should be the reason I get up every morning. As someone has said, “Each day can be exciting and meaningful if we see ourselves as God’s agents, waiting in the shadows to sprinkle salt on all the tasteless lives around us. “Thanks” Lord for knee surgery. I love you, Harry
