Bro. Ed's Epistle – "For me to live is Christ and to die is gain." Philippians 1:21

One of my favorite hymns is "Have Thine Own Way, Lord" The last two lines are: "Fill with Thy Spirit Till all shall see Christ only, always Living in me." That captures the essence of Paul's declaration. Jesus is our all in all. Because of what He did for us on the cross and in His resurrection, my life is wrapped up in His. I am nothing without Him, but everything in Him. May we be so filled with the Spirit that Jesus is seen in every aspect of our lives.

Lloyd's Lines "REMEMBERING THOSE WHO SERVE" – Today for my column that's what I'd like to do. There are so many from this Church who have gone out to serve the Lord. First off there is Skip Parvin and Sam McElroy who are on the Staff with Steve Gaines at the great Belview Baptist in Memphis. Then at the Baptist Church at McAdory there is Don Campbell and Matt Pope. Then Jason Rothe, Son of Robby and Donna is Pastor of the Mineral Springs Baptist Church. Then in 1967 Emily and I left Fairfield Highlands to go into first the Youth and Music Ministry then later as Music Director and Senior Adults. Emily began teaching Sunday School for Young Adult Ladies which she continued until her sudden death in 2008. Closer to my family Dale, our youngest son serves as Music Director at North Brewton Baptist Church and Darryl assists me in the Music here and I could not do it without him. There are so many others that I need to know about SO I NEED YOUR HELP. Could you give me names of others and where they serve and in what capacity? I sure would appreciate it. And now we look forward to "HOMECOMING ON THE HIGHLANDS" March 30th. I saw Bro Gary Cardwell and his wife Carol at the Evangelism Conference recently and he told me they will be here. So please help us get the word out and let's make it a great day. And remember ... GOD LOVES YOU AND SO DO I Sing-cerely Bro. Lloyd

Harry's Heartbeat - A South Carolina potato farmer shared this experience. He had prospered on his original fifty acres and with continuing prosperity he gradually expanded his operations to five hundred acres. Still he prospered. He got so prosperous that he never thought to thank God. Then with a bumper crop he harvested and loaded on freight cars and started it on its way to a northern market. The railroad went on strike. As the strike went on and on, he became increasingly alarmed over the fate of his potatoes, presumably rotting on some side track along the way. Finally in desperation, he cried to God for help, "Please Lord, do something about my potatoes!" The response came to him like an audible voice, "What potatoes, son?" Then he realized that he had not taken God into account and had not prayed over the potatoes as he planted, cultivated, and harvested then nor when he loaded them for shipment. It was all about what he had achieved without seeking God's blessings or being thankful. Like the parable of the rich man in Luke 18:16-21. He did like I have done so many times. As the old saying goes, "he put the cart before the horse." God did not require his soul but he required his potatoes. There's a lesson here for me See You Sunday
