Bro. Ed's Epistle – "Then the Lord appeared to Solomon at night and said to him, 'I have heard your prayer'..." II Chronicles 7:12

Solomon had a fantastic beginning of his reign, climaxed by the building of the Temple and moving the ark of the covenant into the temple and dedicating it over a period of eight days. They had sacrificed 120,000 sheep and 22,000 oxen. The glory of God filled the place so that the priests could not enter the temple. It was a glorious celebration, and then Solomon sent everyone home. That night God appeared to Solomon and confirmed His promise to him. He also warned Solomon not to forsake God and His word. God deals with us in a similar way. While public worship and celebration are important, the most significant encounter we have with the Lord is personal and private. May we rejoice in God's presence with us publically and personally.

LLOYD'S LINES – "WHO'S KNOCKING AT YOUR DOOR?" It could be the Publishers Clearing House but probably not. This Prize patrol began appearing in 1989 and became popular when they began surprising unsuspecting families during the Super Bowl at half time and presenting families with Millions of Dollars. The chances of the Prize patrol appearing on your front door was 1 in 1.75 billion... But there is someone who is always knocking. Revelations 3:20 says "BEHOLD I STAND AT YOUR DOOR AND KNOCK". It is a knock of hope and healing from the death sentence of sin and that of abiding fellowship with the LOVER of your Soul. Take a moment and listen. Do you hear a knock at the door of your heart? Jesus wants your heart to be HIS home. When HE knocks then invite HIM in. The invitation today is LET JESUS COME INTO YOUR HEART. (Taken in part from My Devotional Prayer Book.)

Here we are entering the month of June. It will be a great month of serving the LORD here at FFHBC (WHERE GOD IS BLESSING). Serve the Lord with gladness in worship and song. Be faithful in your attendance and giving. I am so grateful for the chance to serve HIM with you here. And just remember to lift up your Staff and each other daily to the LORD in Prayer. Also remember ... "GOD LOVES YOU AND SO DO I" SING-cerely, Bro. Lloyd

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT -

Thank you, Father for a Pastor who faithfully week by week preaches your Word with clarity, simplicity and power with seemingly little response.
 Thank you, Father for a choir director and choir that thrill our hearts week by week with old and new music.
 Thank you, Father for dedicated teachers who give of themselves to preparation and teaching your Word.
 Thank you, Father for faithful members who never miss a service unless providentially hindered.
 And before I go any further and leave someone out, let me just say thanks to every person (deacons, brotherhood, W.M.U., youth workers, Lord's pantry, sound and visual aides, instrumentalists, kitchen, nursery, secretaries, ushers, cleaning crew, maintenance and whoever I left out.
 Truly God is blessing F.F.H.B.C.

The more the blessings the more the responsibilities. Luke 12:48. Since God has blessed us with all of these blessings, he wants us to share them not hoard them. We all have relatives, neighbors, friends, co-workers waiting to hear the good news of Jesus. With 7 more months left in 2014 I know I can do a better job telling them about Him and our church.

I wonder if it would make any difference, if while the musicians play, we individually pray a prayer of commitment to share what we heard as we close the service. Dare we try????
 I Love you, Harry
