Bro. Ed's Epistle –

"Is not this the carpenter's son?" Matthew 13:55

Jesus' ministry in his hometown did not go very well. His educational credentials were criticized and his status as Joseph's legitimate son was disrespected. They did not even give Joseph's name. But Jesus did have a great earthly father in Joseph. He was Jesus' protector, teacher and provider. Much of what Jesus became is owed to Joseph, His foster father. Jesus loved and honored Joseph by submitting to his leadership of his earthly family.

As we celebrate Fathers' Day on Sunday, may we honor and love our Fathers by the way we live as well as by the words we say. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

LLOYD'S LINES –

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. Psalms 23
 Thank you for your continued love and support. Thank you for all of your cards but most of all thank you for your prayers.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT -

"My Dad", a sinner saved by Grace. My dad was always active in a Baptist Church for years before I was born, and was faithful until health prevented. He served as a Deacon for many years. He had a reputation of living his faith every day. He taught me some life lessons to carry on. He taught me to love and be faithful to my wife. He taught me to be a loving dad to my children. He taught me that the man was suppose to be the spiritual leader in the home. He taught me to take my family to church, not send them. He taught me that hard work was honorable. He taught me to discipline my children in love!
 Oh, yeah, how many of you remember an instrument called a razor strap? It consisted of a heavy piece of leather about one and a half inches wide and twenty-four inches long, always hanging in the same appropriate place. It had two main purposes. To take the rough edges off a straight razor, or to correct some of the rough spots in a boy. He taught me that the name Sims was an honorable name and worthy to be passed down. He taught that in every situation of life, you have to make a choice. You can become a victim or victor. Lastly, he taught me that the Golden Rule was a road map for life.
 So for the lack of space, I just say - - "Thanks, Dad"
 See you Wednesday and Sunday. I love you. Harry
