Bro. Ed's Epistle "Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for our sins so that He might rescue us from this present evil age..." Galatians 1:3-4

Rescue operations have been one of the great themes for literature and movies. The hero or heroes arrive at just the right time to save those in great peril. But the greatest rescue of all time is when Jesus gave His life on Calvary to rescue us from our sins and from this evil age. This evil age started when Adam introduced sin into the world. But God had a plan of rescue even before Adam sinned. And from then until Jesus creates a new heaven and earth, all who receive Him by faith will be rescued. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week as we celebrate our rescue by our Lord Jesus Christ.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT - With the new camera system at several traffic lights in Midfield, Some people are finding out, at the tune of $110, that stop does not mean if I can make it. Hurry, Hurry, Hurry. Dr. Charles Lowery, noted author and speaker, writes the following article on making space in our daily life.

Is the pace in your life too fast? Does cleaning up your dining room mean throwing fast food bags out the back window of your SUV? Has your grocery list been on the refrigerator so long that some of the products don't even exist anymore? Do you drive through McDonalds and ask for your order to go? Do you ask at the Dollar Store, "How much is this?" Are you stressed out?

The best way to enjoy some peace in your life is to add some space. Space is the difference between your limit and your load, the place where you have a little breath left over after reaching the top of the stairs. Space is having a little money left over at the end of the month. Space is having a little time left over before the deadline. Stop, don't just slow down. Let's leave enough space to stop. Otherwise, the pace will squeeze the love, the life, and the laughter out of you. If you want to finish the race with grace, put a little space in your day.

Did you ever wonder why a pigeon walks so funny? A pigeon walks that way to see where it's going. A pigeon has difficulty focusing its eyes so it must bring its head to a complete stop before each step to refocus. So, maybe we need to take a lesson from a pigeon?

See you Wednesday and Sunday.

I love you, Harry
