Bro. Ed's Epistle "Praise the Lord! For it is good to sing praises to our God;
 For it is pleasant and praise is becoming." Psalm 147:1

We are so blessed to be able to sing praises to God each time we meet together for worship. We have wonderful leadership from our staff, choir and musicians. It is easy to proclaim with the psalmist that praise is beautiful. We especially experienced the beauty of praise on Sunday evening when our combined Sr. Adult choirs of Fairfield Highlands and Pleasant Ridge presented music and testimony that praised God for all he has done for us through our Lord Jesus. I urge you to be faithful to attend each time we meet for worship. It is always a beautiful time of praise to our Lord.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT – I wonder if Bro. Ed ever feels this way? A minister, on taking a new church, was highly complimented on his first sermon. A number of people told him it was just what the congregation needed.

The next Sunday, he preached well again, but the congregation was greatly puzzled because he preached the same sermon as before. The third Sunday, when the same sermon was preached again, the church leaders waited on the preacher for an explanation.

The pastor said, "Why yes, it is the same sermon. Everybody told me after the first Sunday how much you needed just that message, and I watched all the first week for some change in your life, but there was none, so I preached it again. I watched all the next week; still no change and I don't see any yet. Don't you think I'd better prepare it again next Sunday? (Spire's Zodiates)

So, the moral of the story is, be careful what you say to Bro. Ed as you go out the door.

See you Wednesday and Sunday! I love you, Harry
