Bro. Ed's Epistle "Receive him then in the Lord with all joy, and hold men like him in high regard." Philippians 2:29

Paul's commendation of Epaphroditus is a great model for recognizing the ministry of faithful servants of the Lord and His church. It is not meant to glorify such people. Truly great servants of God would never want that. But people whose lives reflect the love of Jesus should be commended. One of God's choice servants has just gone to heaven. We will miss Bro. Lloyd Jones, but heaven will be enriched by his presence as He continues to glorify God eternally. He is either directing or singing in that great choir today. We will see you soon, Bro. Lloyd. Continue to pray for Lloyd's family during the coming days. It is a joy to serve with such a caring congregation. I look forward to seeing you on Sunday.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT -

Glory came down and blessed our hearts Sunday before last. It began with a beautiful brisk morning. There seemed to be an unusually loving Spirit in both services. Our choir, Eddie, Lynn, Delores, Sissy and Robbie blessed our hearts as usual with their ministry of love. Bro. Ed did his usual excellent message from Exodus 12:1-7, "The Rock". It was not only inspiring but challenging. No one present will have an excuse for remaining unsaved. Thanks and appreciation are due to all the following. Let me hasten to say to anyone I leave out, it's a matter of head and not heart. The joy of combining our folks with the choir of our sister church, Pleasant Ridge Baptist, was an excellent example of bonding together in Christian love.

Next, to all of our regular folks beginning with our golf cart drivers for our handicap members, Charles Marlow, Johnny Handley, Jerry Bagwell; Our nursery workers Jerry and Janis Bagwell; To our Sunday School teachers, the best in the world; Our sound crew Charles Crump and Joe Gray, our web sight technician Karl Swelling; the best cooks and kitchen crew and servers to be found any where in the world, Barbara and Bill Howton, Linda Crump, Ann Latty, Ginny and Amos Elam, Nell Lovelady, Carrie Newsom, Guy Sellers, Bob Key, Beth Key, Lynette Hosmer, Susie Clements, Bonnie Price, Ron Thomas; Dr. Bob Terry for worshipping with us. See you Wednesday and Sunday. I love you, Harry
