Bro Ed's Epistle –

"But let all who take refuge in You be glad." Psalm 5:11

The Psalmist discusses the many ways that evildoers seek protection. They include, flattery, lying, boasting, and bloodshed. The great contrast is found in those who seek refuge in God. Instead of falling by their own devices, they find joy in God's presence. Their lips are filled with songs of praise, and they are shielded by God's blessing and favor. What a great God we serve! The next time Satan accuses you, don't try to defend yourself. Seek refuge in God and let Him give you favor and joy.

I love you and look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

Harry's Heartbeat -

Recently I picked up a little book compiled by George W. Knight and published by Baber Book House. I enjoyed reading the short articles in it so I thought I would share a few of them.

The following words were scribbled more than a century ago by a confederate soldier.

"The Way of the Lord"

- I Ask God for strength that I might achieve.
- I was made weak that I might learn humbly to obey.
- I ask God for health that I might do greater things.
- I was given infirmity that I might do better things.
- I ask God for riches that I might be happy.
- I was given poverty that I might be wise.
- I ask God for all things that I might enjoy life.
- I was given life that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing that I asked for but everything that I hoped for. Despite myself, my prayers were answered. I am, among men, most richly blessed!

See you Wednesday and Sunday. GOD IS SO GOOD! I Love you, Harry
