1 Corinthians 13:4-8 NIV

4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.

5 It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

Bro Ed's Epistle –

"Honor the Lord from your wealth..." Proverbs 3:9

There is much discussion about worship these days, especially about the style of worship and the kind of music we use to praise and honor God. Proverbs reminds us that worship is not an event that focuses on music styles. Instead it is continual action of life that honors God for Who He is and what He has done. Therefore, Solomon declares that we should honor God with our wealth. That not only includes what we give to Him in worship, but also how we spend all the wealth God entrusts to us. God provides for us and our families, but He also expects us to be a blessing to Him and others by how we use that wealth. I commend you for your worship through giving. I encourage you to seek God's wisdom in how you use all your means to worship and honor Him.

February is WMU Focus Month
WMU would like to spotlight thanking them for all of their service in support of this ministry.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT –

What to do for your Pastor:

Build his spiritual power by praying for him. When you pray for your pastor, you pray for your church, your community and your family.

Build his reputation by speaking well of him. All pastors are human; they have weak and strong points. His influence will depend on which of them you stress.

Build his morale by encouraging him. Every pastor needs to be encouraged at times. Encouragement costs so little, yet it means so much!

Build his leadership by cooperating with him. For every great leader, there must be some great followers.

Build his pulpit power by coming to hear him. Full pews challenge a pastor to prepare and deliver great sermons. Empty pews can discourage him.

By far the greatest thing you can do for Bro. Ed is to follow Christ whom he preaches and exemplifies. We love you Bro. Ed.

See you Wednesday and Sunday. GOD IS SO GOOD! I Love you, Harry
