Bro. Ed's Epistle - "Therefore, be on the alert--for you do not know when the master of the house is coming." Mark 13:35

Jesus' warning to His disciples was given right before His betrayal. He was emphasizing how important it is to be ready for His second coming. It was also a reminder that we must be ready for anything at any time. Recently, the earthquake in Nepal has reminded us that we do not have a guarantee of another day. Nearly 4,000 have died already. They have no more time to prepare to meet God. May Jesus' words be constantly on our hearts so we will be prepared to meet Him. It is also urgent that we be faithful in our witness so we can help others prepare for His coming. I love you and look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT – My wife and I always loved (or for Bro. Buck liked) the comic strip, Peanuts. Sometimes when I get tired of all the junk on television, I'll pick up a Charlie Brown Peanut book.

One day Sally walks up to Charlie Brown and declares, "Linus says when we go to heaven they'll take us up there in a golden chariot."

"That may not be true," replies Charlie.

"Really?"

Sally retorts, "Rats!"

Heaven may not be exactly like Linus pictured it, but I know as a saved sinner I have a place reserved in heaven. I may not know exactly where I will dwell in heaven, but I know with whom I will dwell – My Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Some may debate how we will arrive in heaven, but that I will arrive and live with my Jesus is not debatable. If someone had shared 1 Thess. 16-17 with Linus he could have given Lucy the right answer.

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. "

Ain't God Good! See you Wednesday and Sunday. I love you, Harry
