Bro. Ed's Epistle - "Then He said to His disciple, 'Behold your mother', 'Woman, behold your son!'" John 19:27

Even on the cross, Jesus had concern for His mother, Mary. As the oldest son, he had primary responsibility for His mother's care. Normally, the next oldest son would provide that care in case of the death of the oldest. But none of Jesus' brothers were there. So Jesus turned to the only disciple present at the cross, John, who took her into his household beginning that day. What an example Jesus is to all of us. He fulfilled the requirement of the commandment to honor His father and mother even in His most trying hour.

Join us this Sunday as we give honor to our mothers. We will have a special worship time, and each lady present will receive a gift from our church. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you then.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT - Since Bro. Duke was the primary person responsible for me beginning Harry's Heartbeat, I would like to dedicate the next four articles to him.

"My Dear People,

The story is told of an elderly grandfather who was very wealthy. Because he was going deaf, he decided to buy a hearing aid. Two weeks later he stopped at the store where he had bought it and told the Manager he could pick up conversation quite easily, even in the next room. "Your relatives must be happy to know that you can hear so much better," beamed the delighted proprietor.

"Oh, I haven't told them yet," the man chuckled. "I've just been sitting around listening – and you know what? I've changed my will twice!"

God is not like a dear old grandfather who hears only when we speak clearly and directly to Him. He always hears us. And the attitude toward us is not changed by what He hears, because we stand before Him by grace. But if God were like that grandfather – and if His attitude toward us were changeable – how would your conversations of the week have affected His attitude toward you?

I'm looking forward to seeing you Sunday with your Bibles.

God is so good,
 Brother Buck"
