Dear Church Family,

Ken & I want to thank all of you for your prayers, cards and calls.

Thanks also for the wonderful visits to cheer me up.

All the food everyone brought was so good. What good cooks we have.

Thanks most of all for loving us so much.

We love all of you,
 Ken & Shirley

Bro. Ed's Epistle - "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away." Luke 21:33

Jesus made the claim about His words enduring forever in the context of his teachings about the destruction of Jerusalem, the end of time, and His return in glory. But his statement is true regarding all His words. How wonderful it is that we have Jesus' personal guarantee that we can believe and commit to His words. So much that is spoken and written has a short life and is subject to change and correction. But we can take Jesus at His word with full confidence. So let us resolve to read, hear, meditate and act on the words of our Lord.

It is a joy to serve with you. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT—Since Bro. Duke was the primary person responsible for me beginning Harry's Heartbeat, I would like to dedicate the next four articles to him:

"My Dear People,

Too few people are willing to carry out their responsibility. We need more people like this young lady at a political picnic. She worked in the serving line and was told by her supervisor that she was responsible for the fried chicken and was to put only one piece on each plate, no matter what. The governor, who was running for re-election attended the picnic. As he moved through the line, he said to the young lady, "Excuse me, I'd like to have another piece of chicken." The lady responded, "I'm only supposed to give one piece of chicken to each person." The governor looked at her with his best political smile and said, "But I'm starving. Couldn't you make an exception?" The young lady smiled back, "I'm sorry, only one piece per person." The governor, trying another plan, said, "Do you know who I am? I'm the governor of this state." The lady replied, "Do you know who I am? I'm the person in charge of the chicken."

Do you take seriously your responsibility, no matter what it is?

LOOK UP!

God is so good,
 Brother Buck"
