Bro. Ed's Epistle - "These all with one mind were continually devoting themselves to prayer..." Acts 1:14

After Jesus ascended, the disciples went back to Jerusalem to wait for the promise Jesus had given them. He had told them not to leave Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit came. The first priority of those disciples was to pray. It was not a brief prayer time. It was done continually for ten days. Then on the day of Pentecost, the promise was fulfilled. When the Spirit came upon the church, He has been with us ever since, empowering us to accomplish the mission Jesus gave us. I am thankful to serve a church that prays. Never has it been more important to pray than now. Please be faithful to pray for the power of the Spirit to be manifested in and through us for the glory of Jesus.

I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

May is Fairfield Highland's month to help The Grace Place.

They are requesting gift cards to grocery stores or non perishable pantry items. Please feel free to contact the church office for a list of the most pressing items needed.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT - Since Bro. Duke was the primary person responsible for me beginning Harry's Heartbeat, I would like to dedicate the next three articles to him.

My Dear People,

It has been said, "The Church has many organizers, but few agonizers; Many who pay, but few who pray; Many resters, but few wrestlers; Many who are enterprising, but few who are interceding. People who are not praying are playing."

Two prerequisites of dynamic Christian living are vision and passion, and both of these are generated in the prayer closet. The ministry of preaching is open to a few. The ministry of praying is open to every child of God.

Don't mistake action for unction, commotion for creation and rattles for revivals.

The secret of praying is praying in secret. A worldly Christian will stop praying, and a praying Christian will stop worldliness.

When we pray, God listens to our heartbeat. Hannah's lips moved but her voice was not heard. When we pray in the Spirit, there are groanings which cannot be uttered.

As far as I can determine from the study of God's Word is that praying is the most important thing that any Christian can do, and every Christian can do it.

Our prayer ought to be the same as the prayer of the disciples, "Lord teach us to pray."

Look up!

God is so good,

Brother Buck"
