Bro. Ed's Epistle -

"One thing have I asked of the Lord, that I shall seek: That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, To behold the beauty of the Lord and to meditate in His temple." Psalm 27:4

The priority of David's life was to live in God's temple and behold His beauty. How can one behold the beauty of an invisible God? Was David referring to the temple? Probably not, since the elaborate temple was only built by Solomon years later. To David and to us, the beauty of the Lord is found in His attributes that describe Him. The Bible talks about the beauty of God's holiness and goodness. Add to these God's love, wisdom, power and presence, and you need a lifetime to contemplate and meditate on our great and beautiful God. Such beauty surpasses anything else in human experience. Join me as we continually meditate on the beauty of God, and join our hearts in worship of Him as we gather in His house this week.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT

Just Wondering?

THE BASEBALL ENTHUSIAST – Keeps a score card at all games. Attends every game, watches it on T.V., or listens to it on the radio. Knows the name of every player on his or her favorite team, plus the name and face of practically every player in the league, may also be familiar with many names in other leagues. He talks baseball to any and all who will listen.

THE CHRISTIAN ENTHUSIAST – Takes notes during the service. Attends every meeting --- Sunday evening worship, mid-week prayer meeting, and other Christian events. Is familiar with the names of pastors and leading laymen of his or her denomination and may know several other Christian leaders plus outstanding Christian leaders in history. Talks about Jesus to all who will listen. On Sunday is always worshipping with other Christians.

My question is: Why does the world call the baseball enthusiast a fan and the Christian enthusiast a fanatic?

See you Wednesday Night and Sunday. God is Good! Look up! I love you, Harry.
