Bro. Ed's Epistle

"Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you." Ephesians 4:32

Most of the troubles in our world would be eradicated if everyone lived by Paul's admonition to be kind, tender-hearted and forgiving. The relentless cycle of evil seems to feed on itself, and escalates into violence, death and mayhem.

That causes more evil, and on it goes. God has placed us here to break that cycle of evil by acts and words of kindness, by compassion from a tender heart, and by unleashing God's forgiveness as we share the gospel of Jesus.

Don't give up and don't give in to evil. Defeat it with kindness.

I love you and thank God for you. I look forward to seeing you in worship and fellowship this week.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT

I recently read an article by the daughter of Bob Herrington, "The Chaplain of Bourbon Street." My dad was a bold witness to anyone and everyone. When I was a teenager, Dad took my sister and me shopping. He was more indulgent than our practical mother but also more embarrassing. I exited the dressing room to show my dad the new outfit I wanted and was humiliated to find him witnessing to a mannequin. He finished the plan of salvation and then placed a gospel tract in the lifeless hand. Shocked, I ask him, "Dad what are you doing" He replied sincerely, "I decided to practice witnessing to a dead prospect so I will be ready when I get to a live one."

Wow! He was using every opportunity to be a witness.

Since I am not Bob Herrington or Billy Graham, I am a Christian who should have Christ on my mind 24-7. And, since I like to talk a witness will come out of my mouth when He is on my mind. The older I get the more Jesus is teaching me that I am the "person" in personnel evangelism. It is my responsibility to have Jesus on my mind so He will come out of my mouth. Mat. 9:37.

Think for just a moment, how many times in your life have you had the opportunity to witness to someone and have them pray and receive Jesus as Savior? Would your answer be acceptable on judgment day?

See you Wednesday Night and Sunday. God is so Good! Look up! I love you, Harry.
