Bro. Ed's Epistle "...I give eternal life to them, and they shall never perish; and no one shall snatch them out of my hand." John 10:28

I have great memories of my parents guarding and guiding me in unsure places by taking me by the hand and leading me to safety. I did the same thing with my children and grandchildren. How much more does Jesus care for us. Earthly parents can help us physically and emotionally. But Jesus helps us in every way, especially in spiritual and eternal ways. A parent may not be able to hold a child's hand in every circumstance. But Jesus promises that no one can snatch us out of His hand. Trust His grasp regardless of what you face today. He will never let go. I love you and look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

HARRY'S HEARTBEAT – Sunday, August 16th was one of the greatest days of my life. Heaven came down each pew with precious memories. Life-long memories of all the children and youth that I had in children's and youth camp, some now fifty and sixty years old. Some I thought about killing, but now have strong Christian testimonies and families. Some of the men have haircuts like mine, and some of the ladies with a few silver threads. But, all still ready to hug and thank an old man.

If I live another 92 years I still would never find words to express my love and thanks to my church family, past and present. For the 50+ cards and gifts I will always cherish and read them over and over again and for the visits and phone calls and mostly your prayers. I kinda felt guilty receiving all the love and praise for something the Lord had done in my life. It is my prayer that all the love and praise that comes to me will flow through me back to Him.

I covet your continued prayers that God's will be done in my remaining days. God is So Good! I love you, Harry.
