1 Bro. Ed's Epistle

"Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

Our recent observance of Labor Day has reminded us of the need for rest.

Work is important and is commended by God. But rest is also commanded by God. The fourth commandment urges us to remember the Sabbath Day.

It is based on the example of God who created everything in six days and rested on the seventh. Having a day off or a time of vacation is highly beneficial to everyone. But there is another kind of rest that is also needed. It is the refreshing that comes from trusting our Lord in everything. Jesus offers comfort, security, peace and love if we only come to His open arms and enjoy His embrace.

Trust Him today and discover true rest from any and every burden.

I love you and look forward to a time of refreshing and rest as we worship God together this week.

Harry's Heartbeat

The Rewards of Being Sick Romans 5:3-5

When we are sick we have:

Time to Think.

Opportunity to evaluate our life.

Development of sympathy for others.

A chance for rest.

Knowledge that the world can keep going without us.

A wholesome sense of humility.

A greater appreciation of God's gift of health.

A realization of the value of purposeful daily living.

A sense of dependence upon others.

Gratitude for the achievements of modern medicine.

God hath not promised:

Sun without rain,

Joy without sorrow,

Peace without pain,

But God hath promised:

Strength-rest-light-help-love.

See you Wednesday and Sunday. I love you. God is So Good! Harry.
