Bro. Ed's Epistle

"...the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many." Matthew 20:21

As Jesus approached Jerusalem where He was going to be crucified, His disciples began to argue about which of them was to be greatest in Jesus' kingdom. Jesus responded to them that he who wishes to be first must be the servant of all. Then He pointed to Himself as the example of service. It is still true today in following Jesus. If we desire true greatness, our lives will be characterized by service to Jesus and to others. I am thankful to be pastor of a church which magnifies service and ministry. I pray that we will always maintain that conviction and practice. Keep on serving Jesus by serving others. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

Proverbs 3:5-6 KJV

⁵ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
⁶ In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Harry's Heartbeat

I recently read a play-like article that had some good advice for life. The best way to live life is to take the advice of the clock doctor. The story tells about a young clock that got stressed out. He began to think introspectively about how many times he had to tick. He had to tick two times for every second. That's 120 times per minute. Then he went a little further, that's 7200 ticks an hour. That's over 172,000 ticks a day and over 1.2 million ticks in a week. Overwhelmed by all the ticking, he became stressed and depressed. So he went to see the clock psychiatrist. He told the psychiatrist how many ticks he had to tick and wondered how he was going to keep going. The clock doctor thought on these figures for a minute and wisely asked, "Young clock, how many ticks do you tick at one time?" "The clock responded, "Just one." The clock doctor said, "Then that's all you have to focus on. Tick one tick at a time or you'll be ticked off the rest of your life." So I guess the moral at this point in my life, all I need to concentrate on is my next tick. How about your life? See you at our next service. God is so Good! I love you, Harry
