Bro. Ed's Epistle "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost." Luke 19:10

Jesus made his purpose statement in connection with the conversion of Zaccheus. As part of the body of Christ, we share that same purpose. As we follow Jesus we need to seek out those who are lost, away from God's plan and purpose. And while we cannot save them, Jesus can. Our part is to share the gospel of Jesus and allow the Holy Spirit to convict and convert them. May we be diligent to seek out the lost for salvation and life.

I thank God for you and pray for you continually. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.

Harry's Heartbeat

One of the verses that I remind myself of every time I pray is Romans 8:25. Patiently and expectantly are words that Satan would love to remove from my vocabulary. I recently decided to sit down and reflect back over the years and remember any specific request that I was still waiting on. It's easy to kinda broadcast your burdens rather than pin point them --- father forgive me of "all" my unforgiven sin.

God revealed several burdens that had not been visibly answered. If so, I failed to recognize them. Three of which go back to twenty five or thirty years, Remember God does not always meet my time table. Many years ago one of the last requests a mother asked of me was to never give up on her son's salvation. During the invitation time, I recently prayed for another verse to be sung, but nothing happened so I claimed Romans 8:25. Then Monday morning the telephone rang and Praise God, Hallelujah, it was Bro. Ed telling me that my prayer had been answered, before God called me home. I may not be here when the other prayers are answered, but I have confidence they will be. So keep praying and wait. Show your love to Your Savior and Pastor by being present in "all" our worship services.

Remember, I love you and God Is So Good!
