Bro. Ed's Epistle – "For there the Lord commanded the blessing-- life forever." Psalm 133:3

The psalmist extols the worship of God led by the priest Aaron at his consecration and anointing. He describes the oil as it flowed from Aaron's head down to his beard and dripping off his robe. It represented the ultimate in worship as Aaron represented mankind in perfect fellowship with God and with the rest of mankind. He ended his description of that holy experience by declaring that in that relationship God commanded the blessing, not a blessing, but the blessing. That blessing is eternal life. We now understand that Aaron is a picture of Jesus, whose blood flowed from His head to His feet in payment of the sins of the world. As a result of Jesus' sacrifice, the blessing of eternal life was commanded by God on all who identify with Jesus by faith in Him.

Next Sunday is Sanctity of Life day in our churches. May we celebrate all life from conception to natural death. But may we especially celebrate eternal life made possible only by faith in Jesus as Lord and Savior.
