Bro. Ed's Epistle –

"If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also." John 14:3

One of the most precious promises in the Bible is that Jesus is coming again. He made that promise in the context of His impending death, burial and resurrection. In an effort to comfort His disciples, Jesus made three outstanding statements. One is that He is preparing a place for us to dwell with Him forever. The second is that He is coming again. The third is that He is the only way to Heaven. What a great Savior we have. Because of His sacrifice, we are promised eternal life in His presence. In the midst of a world in turmoil, we can look up and look forward to His coming again. It is a joy to serve as your pastor. I look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week

To our Church Family, whether here or scattered abroad – Thank you all so much for your love, prayers and support during Daddy's illness and Homegoing! So many have written these same words over the years, because of your love and concern for everyone who passes through the doors of FHBC. Since 1958, you have been our family – some were here when we first joined the church, and others have joined along the way. But, we know that we would not be where we are today, without you! Daddy, and Mama, loved you all and knew that this was the place God meant for us to be. We're so thankful for each one of you, and look forward to carrying on the Lord's work in this place, until He says otherwise. We love you!

One final note - So many times people ask "Why" did such-and-such happen. During his illness, Daddy never asked "why," but "Who." Who can I talk to today? Who will cross my path that I can minister to? Who can I share God's love with today? His life – especially during the last year - showed us that the correct question is not why – it's Who.

God is so good!
