“Here I am, send me” Isaiah 6:8

Isaiah's vision in the temple was an awesome display of God's power and holiness. Isaiah's king, Uzziah had died and he went to the temple for consolation. What he saw was The King seated on the heavenly throne high and lifted up. Isaiah was so overwhelmed by God's holiness that he feared for his own life. But God cleansed him and issued a call to prophetic service. Isaiah's answer was "here I am, send me". God then gave him a mission to prophesy to his own people who had, drifted away from God. When Isaiah asked how long he was to preach, God replied that he should preach until no one was left to listen

Isaiah's response to God's call should be our response also. Our nation has drifted away from God, and we need to be His messengers to call people back to God. Isaiah's response is also our theme for the week of prayer for North American Missions, and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Our offering goal is $3000.00, I urge you to pray for and give to support North American missions. Together we can be used by God to call our nation back to Him. I love you and thank God for the privilege of serving as your pastor.

Franklin Graham State Prayer Rally

Montgomery, AL April 14, 2016

The van will leave at 10 am. The rally is from 12 - 1 pm.

“I will be going to the capitals of all 50 states to proclaim the Gospel, rally prayer for our country, and encourage Christians to vote for candidates with biblical values,” Graham wrote in an announcement letter for the tour. “Together, we can mobilize the Church to not only get up and vote, but also to encourage Christians to run for political office at the local, state, and federal levels as well.”
