Bro. Ed's Epistle –

"Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, I will confess him before My Father who is in heaven." Matthew 10:32

Next week we will celebrate the birthday of our nation. It all started with a declaration of independence which stated our right to self government. The result was the beginning of the greatest nation in the world. Last week, Great Britain voted to leave the European Union prompting some to call the vote their declaration of independence. While independence from foreign nations is a good thing for human government, I want to commend a different declaration for you to consider. It is a declaration of dependence. Not dependence on a human government, but dependence upon Jesus. Such a declaration will result in Jesus' declaration that we belong to Him. Our confession of dependence on Jesus results in His declaration of our salvation and life to the Father. As our declaration of independence resulted in tremendous freedoms which we enjoy today, our declaration of dependence results in freedom from the penalty of sin, freedom from worry and cares and freedom from the tyranny of Satan. As we celebrate our nation's birth, may we also celebrate our total trust in Jesus as Savior and Lord.

I love you and look forward to worship and fellowship with you this week.
