"When Jesus had finished giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He departed from there to teach and preach in their cities." Matthew 11:1

One of the most important ministries of Jesus was teaching. What He knew, He wanted to impart to the people. Ignorance is a cruel taskmaster which holds its victims in slavery. Thus, Jesus devoted His life to teaching God's word. It is still vital today that people are taught the basic skills of education. It is the way out of so much distress. But it is even more important that the truth of God's word be shared with all.

In a few days, millions of children will start back to school. Join me in prayer for parents, children and their teachers. May there be truth based learning, and may God empower us to be even more effective in sharing His word by the words we say and the life we live.

I thank God for you and look forward to worship, fellowship and learning God's word with you this week.
