Bro. Ed's Epistle

"How great is Your goodness, which You have stored up for those who fear You." Psalm 31:19

We sing a chorus which declares "God is so good." It is a truth that is indisputable. God is indeed good to all regardless of who they are or what they may have done. His goodness is a result of His character which is demonstrated in many ways. Jesus said that God makes the sun to shine on the righteous and the unrighteous. His goodness abounds. But the Psalmist went a step further to say that God's goodness is available in extra measure for those who fear Him. The word he uses to describe God's available goodness refers to a treasure which is set aside for one's use. It's like a savings account from which we may make a withdrawal at any time. It is on deposit for us because of God's work of goodness which He lavishes on us. The next time we sing "God is so good", reflect on the words of the psalmist and thank God for His abundant goodness to us.

God is good to me in allowing me to serve as your pastor. I look forward to fellowship and worship with you each week.
