Bro. Eds's Epistle

"Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

The invitation of Jesus was to the simple, ordinary people who received His teaching with joy in contrast to the condemning teaching of the scribes.

How wonderful Jesus' invitation sounded to them. It is also a wonderful invitation for us. While life is so busy and hectic, and just surviving day by day is so tiring, the promise of true rest is a blessing.

The next time you feel so tired that you can't go on, remember Jesus' invitation, and simply rest in His presence. His refreshing Spirit will comfort and encourage you for the journey ahead.

Evelyn and I have enjoyed a few days of rest and time with our family. We look forward to being back with you this week as we worship, fellowship and serve Him together.
