Bro. Ed's Epistle

"...but He, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, sat down at the right hand of God." Hebrews 10:12

This Friday is Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement for the Jewish people. It is the one day each year that the High Priest could enter into the Holy of Holies in the temple, and sprinkle the blood on the mercy seat. In that way, he made atonement for the sins of Israel. The writer of Hebrews rightly points out that the practice is a yearly reminder that Israel has sinned. He also rightly concludes that atonement is not accomplished with the blood of bulls and goats. The real atonement that cancels out mankind's sin and makes one right with God was done by Jesus one time on Calvary. His sacrifice alone could do that because he was the only acceptable one. And now, thank God, salvation is purchased for every one who believes in Jesus. May we give thanks every day for the once for all sacrifice of our Lord.

I thank God for you and look forward to worship, fellowship and ministry with you this week.
